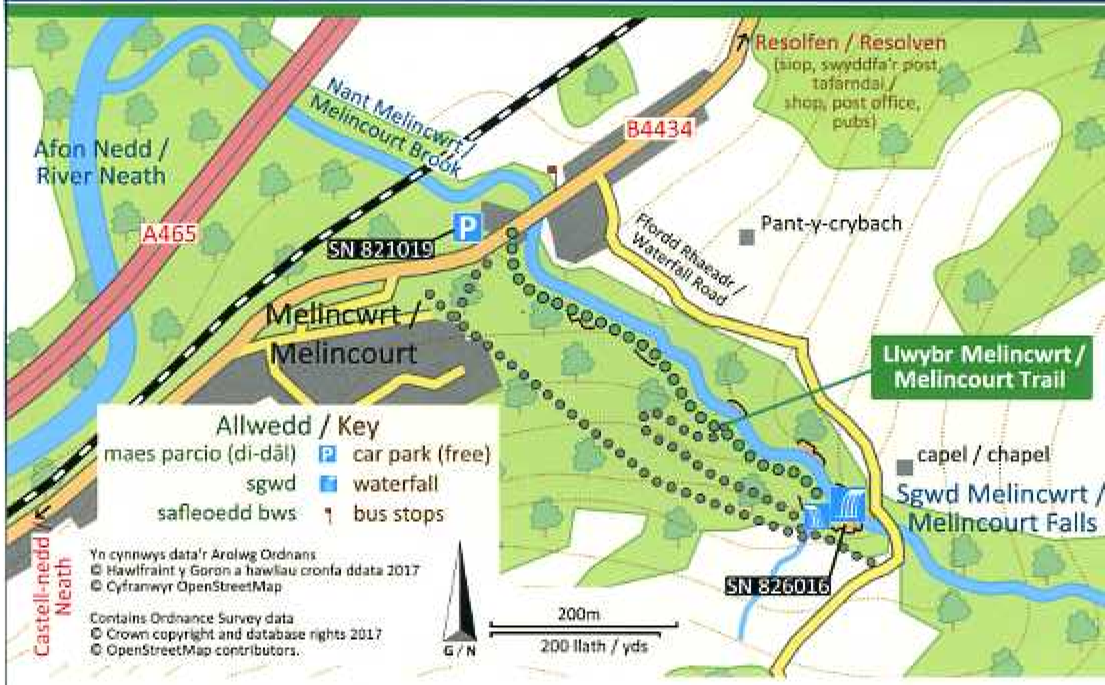
Mae Sgwd Melincwrt yn llechu mewn ceunant serth sy'n gyforiog o redyn a hen goed derw, ac mae'n creu golygfa ysgubol wrth ddisgyn 23m/80troedfedd i'r creigiau islaw.

Rheolir y warchodfa natur lydanddail hon gan Ymddiriedolaeth Bywyd Gwyllt De a Gorllewin Cymru, ac mae'n cynnig taith gerdded fer at raeadr syfrdanol.

Nestled in a steep sided gorge rich in ferns and ancient oak trees, Melincourt Falls is an impressive sight tumbling 23m/80ft onto the rocks below.

This broadleaved nature reserve is managed by the Wildlife Trust of South and West Wales and offers a short walk to a spectacular waterfall.



Mae'r llwybr yn dechrau ar ochr arall y ffordd o'r maes parcio cyhoeddus, ac mae'r llwybr yn mynd am i fyny ychydig drwy goedwig dderw sy'n llawn o glychau'r gog a llysiau'r swynwyr.

Os oes gennych lygad graff, efallai y gwelwch chi adar fel bronwen y dŵr, gwybedog brith a'r tingoch ar eich taith.

The trail entrance is the opposite side of the road from the public car park and follows a slightly uphill footpath through the oak woodland rich in bluebells and enchanters nightshade.

A keen eye may spot birdlife such as dippers, pied flycatchers and redstarts on the route.
